As summer begins and the days grow longer, June often brings a change of pace. School schedules shift. Vacations are planned. Cookouts, graduations, and family gatherings begin to fill the calendar. There is a certain energy to this season, but there is also a temptation during busy seasons to drift spiritually without even realizing it.

In the Gospel of Mark, Jesus says to his disciples, “Come away to a deserted place all by yourselves and rest a while” (Mark 6:31). It is a simple invitation, but an important one. Jesus understood that people cannot pour endlessly without being renewed. Even in the midst of ministry, movement, and responsibility, there is a need to pause and reconnect with God.

Summer can become more than just a season of activity. It can also become a season of attention. A season where we notice the beauty around us a little more clearly. A season where we slow down enough to hear God again. Sometimes faith grows most deeply not only in dramatic moments, but in ordinary ones: sitting on a porch in the evening, sharing a meal with family, taking a walk, worshiping together, or simply taking a quiet moment to pray.

As a church, we continue to live out our mission to love God, connect with others, and serve the world. And summer gives us fresh opportunities to do all three. We hope you will continue to stay connected through worship, fellowship, and service in the months ahead. Your presence matters more than you know. The encouragement, kindness, and faith you bring strengthen the life of this community.

My prayer for all of us this June is not simply that we stay busy, but that we stay rooted. Rooted in gratitude. Rooted in community. Rooted in the presence of God that continues to meet us wherever we are.

May this season be one of renewal, joy, and deeper awareness of God's grace surrounding you each day.

Your's in Christ,

Pastor Singh
